ITALIAN FOR FOREIGNERS

Istituto Dante Alighieri

Istituto Dante Alighieri began its activity in 1923 and, throughout the years, it has become a worldwide and well-known institution.

Istituto Dante Alighieri is recognized by the Ministry of Public Education and cooperates with DITALS Centre of University for Foreigners of Siena.

Our didactic planning follows the guidelines of the European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

DIDACTIC METHOD

Our didactic method is the result of many years experience in teaching Italian to non-native speakers.

The approach is strictly communicative and the student is encouraged to express himself while considering the linguistic and grammatical characteristics of the Italian Language.

The aim is to develop a broad range of skills, but in particular, fluency of expression and grammatical accuracy that enable the student to interact in different situations both in daily life and the working world.

CERTIFICATES and LEVELS

The "Certificate of Studies" have been calibrated on the Council of Europe Levels (A1, A2 - B1, B2 - C1, C2).

At the end of the course, students are tested in listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Certificato di Frequenza: beginner level

Certificato di Lingua Italiana: levels A1 - A2
